LINGUA

I have walked in summer meadows
Where the sunbeams flashed and broke,
But I never saw the cattle or the sheep or horses smoke.

I have watched the birds with wonder
When the world with dew is wet,
But I never saw a robin
Puffing at a cigarette.

I have fished in many a river
Where the sucker crop is ripe,
But I never saw a catfish,
Puffing at a briar pipe.

Man's the only living creature
That blows where'er he goes,
Like a blooming traction engine
Smoke from mouth and nose.

If God had intended he'd smoke
When He first invented man,
He would have built him on
A widely different plan.

He'd have fixed him with a stovepipe
And a damper and a grate,
And He'd had a smoke consumer
That was strickly up to date.

The wedding of Miss Isabel Irvine and T. S. Thompson will be a social event of next week, taking place at 8 o'clock in the afternoon at the first Methodist church.

Miss Irvine is an extremely popular member of the youngest set of Phoenix, and the announcement of her engagement last fall was the occasion for many charming affairs being given in her honor. She is a graduate of the Phoenix Union High school and of the University of Arizona, and a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. She resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Irvine, at the Sun Court apartments.

Mr. Thompson is a prominent young business man of Tucson, and after a honeymoon spent on the coast the bridal pair will make their home in that city—much to the regret of their friends in Phoenix.
