About Thomson Reuters

George W. Bush's nine presidential electors from Louisiana.

Robbie Champion

Robbie Champion has been involved in the College Republicans since 2005, serving as chapter chairman and state public relations director. She has been active in Student Government Association, Student Judicial Board, and various other student groups at Maryville College, while spending summers interning in Washington, D.C. She is serving as a volunteer at the RNC Convention.

Bethany Dorobiala

Bethany Dorobiala is the State Chair of the Minnesota College Republicans and Midwestern Regional Vice Chair of the College Republican National Committee. Bethany was elected as an at-large alternate delegate to the 2008 Republican National Convention at the Republican Party of Minnesota State Convention in June 2008, and is the youngest member of the Minnesota host delegation.

Lora Hines

Lora Hines is an alumnus of Friends University (Wichita, Kan.), with a B.A. in History. She was born in Terre Haute, Indiana and raised in Wichita, Kansas. She has previous media experience with "Reader's Digest" and is pursuing a M.A. in Communications at Wichita State University. A delegate to the RNC from Kansas, she is Chairman of the Sedgwick County Young Republicans.

Joseph Irvine

Joseph Irvine is a twenty-year old junior from Utah State University and chair of a growing pro-life movement. Selected by Utah State University to attend the Republican National Convention, Joseph met with politicians from his home state of Arizona and was chosen to be a non-voting member of the Arizona Republican Convention Delegation. Joseph will be serving as a delegate page and will aide in other various and sundry party tasks.
